

The Special Education PTA of South River presents a free public workshop on

Developing an Individualized Education Program (IEP) For Academic Achievement

Monday, February 4, 2001

7-9pm

at the South River Elementary Library

81 Johnson Place, South River

Special Guest Speaker: Penny Dragonetti

SPAN Northern Training Coordinator

Coordinator of the Resource Centers in Northern N.J.

Learn How to Develop an I.E.P. to Maximize Your Child's Potential Learn Step-by-Step:

How an I.E.P. (Individualized Education Plan) is formulated

How families can participate as equals in formulating an I.E.P.

Learn about useful tools such as Positive Student Profiles & the I.E.P. Worksheet that maximize a child's potential for academic achievement.

Federal requirements for I.E.P. 's and the mandate that parents participate as equal partners in that development.

Please fill out the attached form below to register or call SEPTA at (732) 432-6747

.....
SEPTA /SPAN Free Public Workshop Monday, February 4, 2001

Name: _____
Address: _____ Town: _____ Zip Code: _____
Phone Number: (____) _____ in case of weather cancellation.
Email: _____

Yes, I would like to receive notices about upcoming events

Yes, I would like to receive by email the SEPTA Advocate Newsletter

Please mail to: SEPTA of South River -February Workshop

33 Pulawski Ave.

South River, N.J. 08882

SEPTA of South River - 81 Johnson Place, South River, New Jersey, 08882

www.geocities.com/septa_srnj

email: septa_srnj@geocities.com

Information Line: (732)432-6747

*Child Advocacy *Special Education Rights *Informative Workshops * Parent and Child Support

Special Education PTA ~ everychild.onevoice