

FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES: “GET REAL WITH TRANSITION: PLANNING FOR ADULT LIFE FROM BIRTH TO GRADUATION”

The process of moving from school to adult living can be daunting for students with disabilities. This training is intended to give parents, students, and professionals the practical tools necessary to help students plan effectively and realistically for their transition from and through the various steps of the special education system to adulthood.

This presentation will include: why transition is necessary; legal requirements; best practices; overview of the adult service system; and advocacy strategies to assist in successful transition planning.
