SEPTA of South River
presents a free public workshop:

"Social Skills and the Learning Disabled Child— a parent's guide"

Wednesday, Sept. 8th, 2004

7pm at the South River Public Library
55 Appleby Ave., South River, NJ

This evening will feature the special showing of the video: "Last One Picked... First One Picked On"

Featuring Richard Lavoie

(How Different Can This Be? The F.A.T. City Workshop)

Social Skills is often an important part of a child's IEP (Individual Education Plan) that is often over looked.
Social Skills impact on all areas of a child's life- Friendships, future jobs, and most importantly their self esteem.

Parents will explore and learn strategies to help improve the social skills of their learning disabled child using a positive and supportive approach.

For more information please contact the SEPTA Information Line at (732)651-7157 or email SEPTA at: info@specialeducationpta.org Children are always welcome when accompanied by their parents/guardians.
